

-Resources if separated, Garbage if mixed-

Rules for Sorting Recyclables and Waste

Empty Cans / PET Bottles

Collected once a week

Cans that contained food or beverage, and spray cans with their content consumed;
PET bottles that contained food or seasoning with the mark.

Used Batteries

Collected once a week

End-of-life battery cells and lithium coin cells. (model number starting with CR or BR)

Empty Bottles

Collected once a week

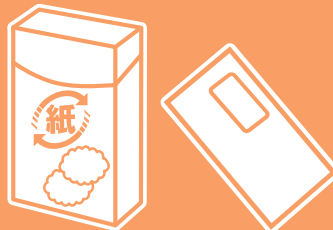

Bottles that contained beverages or seasonings.

Mascot Kwarun

Recyclables

Mixed paper

Collected once a week

All paper except the items collected by local recyclable resource collection groups and dirty paper and paper with strong smell.

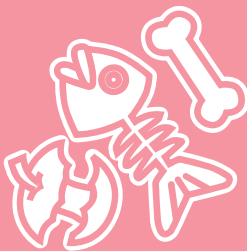

Plastic Containers and Packaging

Collected once a week

Containers and packaging made of plastic materials that contained products.

Ordinary Garbage

Collected twice a week

Kitchen garbage and refuse other than recyclables, small metal articles, and oversized garbage.

Small Metal Articles

Collected twice a month

Metal articles (articles made of metal in whole or in part) smaller than 30 cm, umbrellas, and wire hangers.

Oversized Garbage (pay service)

Collected twice a month with prior application

Metal articles of 30 cm or larger, furniture items of 50 cm or larger, etc.

Empty Cans / PET Bottles

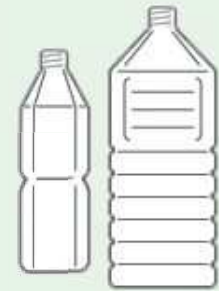

Beverage cans

Sweets cans

Spray can with the content consumed

PET bottles with the mark

Cans of food and can lids

Caps and labels of PET bottles should be removed and included in plastic containers.

Empty Bottles

Bottles of beverage, seasoning or food

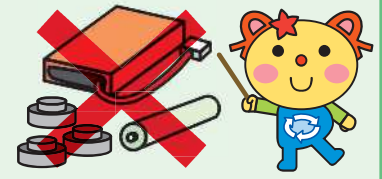

Vases, glass/ceramic bottles, bottles of cosmetics
Should be wrapped with thick paper and included in ordinary garbage with the indication "Broken/fragile articles, handle with care."

Used Batteries

Laminated/cylindrical lithium coin cells (CR or BR)

Button cells and rechargable batteries should be taken to electrical appliance shops and recycling partner shops.

Mixed paper

Paper containers and packaging with the mark

Tissue paper boxes

Snack boxes

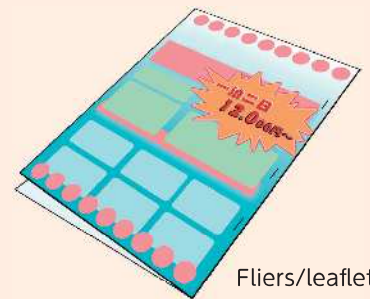

Paper containers of cup noodles

Check the mark

Receipts

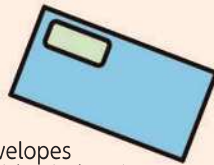

Fliers/leaflets

Packaging paper

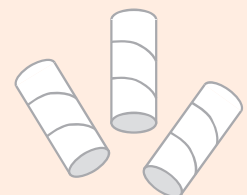

Photos

Envelopes (with windows)

Shredded paper

Toilet paper cores

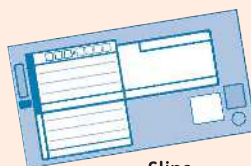

If you are worried about personal information, delete it before disposing of paper articles.

Notebooks

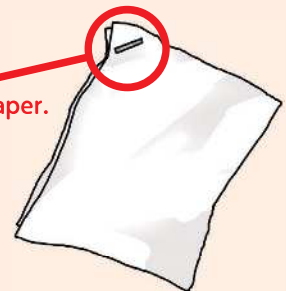

Postcards

Slips

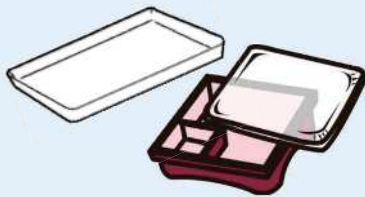

Stapler needles may be left on paper.

Newspapers, magazines, cardboards, milk cartons, etc., should be handed over to local recyclable resource collection groups. Dirty paper and paper with strong smell should be included in ordinary garbage.

Plastic Containers and Packaging

Check the ♻️ ("Plastic") mark.

Food trays for meat/fish, lunchbox containers

Check the ♻️ mark for cup noodle containers

Containers of cup noodles, eggs, etc.

Containers of mayonnaise, etc.

Bottles/refill packages of shampoo/detergent

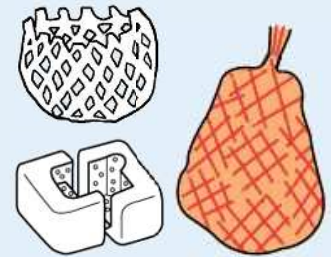

Plastic shopping bags, snack bags, bread bags

Labels of PET bottles

Caps of PET bottles and tubes

Foamed polystyrene, fruit nets

Ordinary Garbage

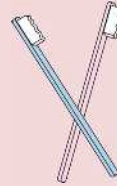

Kitchen refuse

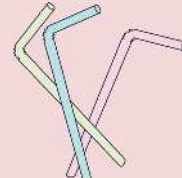

Drain it well!

Plastic containers

Toothbrushes

Straws

CDs/DVDs (including cases)

Plastic products (not containers/packaging) should be included in ordinary garbage.

Dirty paper and paper with strong odors

Sponges

Paper diapers

Aluminum foil

Small branches and boards (thickness < 10 cm, length < 50 cm)

Dishes, bowls, flower pots, electric bulbs (including LED bulbs)

Should be wrapped with thick paper with the indication "Broken/fragile articles, handle with care."

Local recyclable resource collection groups – Recycling through communal activities–

Newspapers (including fliers inside)

Magazines/books (including catalogs, etc.)

Cardboard

Milk cartons

Cloths

Returnable bottles

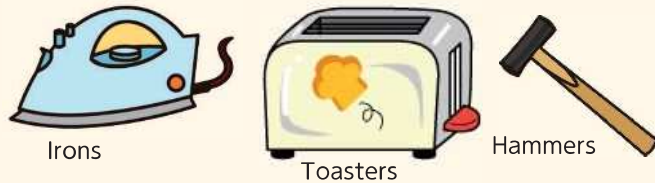

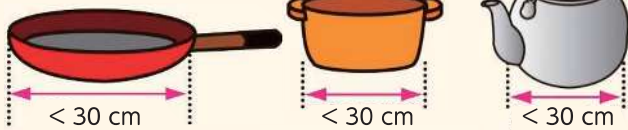

Articles collected, collection points and collection days vary by group. Contact the local life and environment office for more information.

Small Metal Articles

Metal articles made of metal in whole or in part, smaller than 30 cm

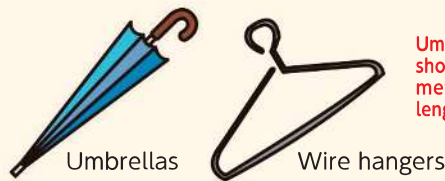

Cooking utensils with the longest side < 30 cm, excluding the handle or spout

Irons

Toasters

Hammers

Umbrellas

Wire hangers

Umbrellas and wire hangers should be included in small metal articles even if the length exceeds 30 cm.

Please cooperate in the collection of small home appliances at collection points.

Small home appliances

Home appliances with the longest side < 30 cm that can be put into the slot of a small home appliance collection box

Slot 30cm x 15cm

Slot for cell phones

Cameras

Game consoles

AC adaptors

Music players

Video cameras

Collection boxes are installed at ward offices, branches, local life, and environment offices, etc.

Oversized Garbage

Prior application required (pay service)

Metal articles of 30 cm or larger, furniture items of 50 cm or larger, etc. that were used at home

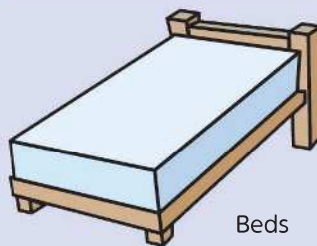

Gas ovens

Microwave ovens

Chests

Beds

Cloth dryers

TVs

Air conditioners

Washing machines

Refrigerators

The collection of oversized garbage requires prior application, and disposal fees are charged.

Contact

Oversized Garbage Center

Tel : 044-930-5300

Fax : 044-930-5310

(exclusively for persons with hearing impairments)

Applications accepted

Monday through Saturday
Except Dec. 31 and Jan. 1 to 3

Office hours

08:00 to 16:45

[For questions about sorting] Contact the local life and environment office listed below

Inquiry	Covered districts	Tel
Nanbu Life and Environment Office	Kawasaki-ku except areas indicated with*	044(266)5747
Kawasaki Life and Environment Office	Kawasaki-ku (areas indicated with*) and Saiwai-ku	044(541)2043
Nakahara Life and Environment Office	Nakahara-ku	044(411)9220
Miyamae Life and Environment Office	Takatsu-ku and Miyamae-ku	044(866)9131
Tama Life and Environment Office	Tama-ku and Asao-ku	044(933)4111

* Asahi-cho, Ikeda, Isago, Ekimaehon-cho, Enoki-cho, Ogawa-cho, Kaizuka, Kyo-machi 1 and 2-cho-me, Sakai-machi, Shimonamiki, Shinkawadori, Suzuki-cho, Tsutsumine, Nisshin-cho, Higashida-cho, Fujimi, Horinouchi-cho, Hon-cho, Minato-cho, Minami-machi, Miyamae-cho, Miyamoto-cho, Motogi

Waste Reduction Promotional Section, Environment Bureau

Tel : 044-200-2580 Tax : 044-200-3923

E-mail : 30genryo@city.kawasaki.jp

*Published in March 2017

This document uses recycled paper at the blending rate of 70%.

This printed matter uses soy ink.