

2nd maternity support benefit application information

About the maternity support benefit

From April 1, 2025, the national government started programs with the aim to provide continuous support from the pregnancy period. These include the “Maternity Support Benefit” as a means of financial support as well as the “Comprehensive Consultation and Support Program for Childbirth” as a form of close-following consultation support. Moreover, with the start of these programs, the Childbirth and Childcare Support Program that was implemented until fiscal year 2024 will end. Kawasaki City is sending out application guides for maternity support benefit to be paid following your consultation when you submit your pregnancy notification and at the time of a visit following childbirth in order to provide comprehensive physical, mental, and financial support to mothers before and after giving birth, in line with the aim of the national government.

Eligible persons and details of second payment of maternity support benefit

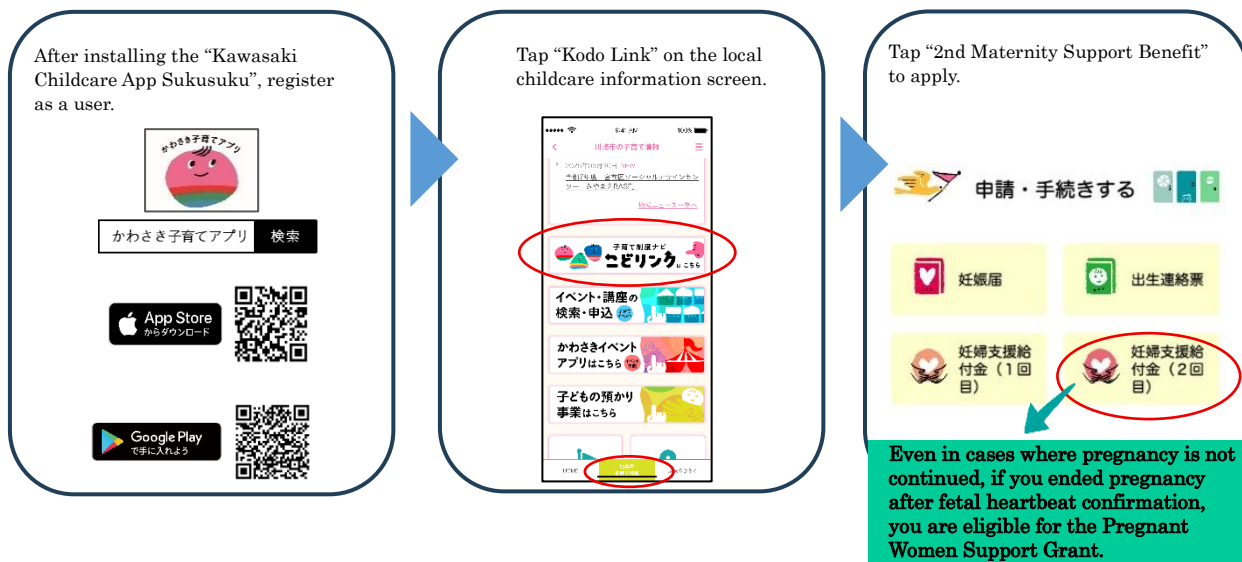

Payment equal to number of unborn children × 50,000 yen

* Applicants and recipients must be pregnant and soon to give birth. Payments can only be made to the account of the person who is pregnant and soon to give birth.

If there is no bank account in the name of the person who is pregnant and soon to give birth, please contact the call center on the back.

Application method

You can apply via the “Kawasaki Childcare App Sukusuku”.

(See reverse side for continuation.)

[Important] To apply, the following image data will be required. Please prepare these items before applying.

Documents to confirm personal identity	ID (driver's license, My Number card, residence card, etc.)
Documents to confirm the transfer account	Documents showing the maternity woman's account number (bankbook, cash card, etc.)

* If you are receiving both a newborn baby visit and baby greeting visit, submit one application from the application guide that you have received in advance. Persons who have already received the second payment of the maternity support benefit cannot apply.

■ Application deadline

Within 2 years from the date that is 8 weeks before your pregnancy due date

* You are able to apply by the application deadline. However, in the future, we do not plan to send out application recommendation notices individually. Therefore, we recommend that you apply as soon as possible.

The second maternity support benefit may not be paid after the application deadline.

■ Estimated period of time until payment

Following your application, it may take up to 3 months for you to receive your payment.

Before the money is transferred to your bank account, the “Maternity Support Benefit Confirmation Notice and Maternity Support Benefit Payment Notice” or “Maternity Support Benefit Payment Notice” will be sent to your home by post.

■ Precautions when submitting application

An application cannot be submitted if you have already received the second maternity support benefit from Kawasaki City or another municipality.

We may contact you by telephone or contact other municipalities, if there is the possibility of a duplicate application or incorrect details in your application. A medical institution may also verify the state of your pregnancy.

* If you have not applied for the first payment of maternity support benefit

- As the first payment of the maternity support benefit, you will receive the payment of “50,000 yen per pregnancy”. You can apply within 2 years from the date on which you confirmed that you are pregnant. In the future, we do not plan to send out application recommendation notices individually. Therefore, we recommend that you apply as soon as possible. Please note that you are not eligible to receive the benefit if you have already submitted and received the benefit an application in another municipality.
- If you do not have or have lost the guide for the first payment of the maternity support benefit or are not aware of the first payment of the maternity support benefit, please contact the call center below.
- If you have applied for the first payment of the maternity support benefit but the money has not been deposited, contact the call center to inquire about the status of the payment.
