

(To parents or guardians)

Reasons and Required Documents for Assistance for Persons Exceeding the Authorized Amount

Those to whom the following reasons apply may be approved for financial assistance even if their income exceeds the authorized amount.

* Please note that there may be cases in which an applicant is not approved even after submitting the required documents due to excess income.

Reason	Required documents (copy acceptable)
a) Public assistance has been suspended or terminated this year or in the previous year. (Period of receipt of benefits: April 1, 2022 ~January 31, 2024)	Certificate of public assistance (The name of all household members and (1) the date of commencement of receipt and (2) the date of suspension or discontinuance) * Valid only if all household members are listed on the application for schooling expenses assistance for the 2024.
b) Since I am unemployed, my income during 2022 does not apply. (Period of unemployment: January 1, 2023 ~) * Unemployment does not include retirement.	Certificate of eligibility for employment insurance (Those who have received benefits for the period from January 2023 to December 2023.) *If you are not receiving employment insurance Notification Form for Opening or Closing, etc. a Sole Proprietorship
c) Since I am taking a leave of absence due to illness, my income during 2022 does not apply. (Period of absence: January 1, 2023 ~)	The following two documents Those who have been on leave of absence from January 2023 to December 2023. (1) "Certificate of absence from work" etc. issued by your place of work *Document verifying the period (scheduled) of absence from work (2) Doctor's certificate * Document verifying you are unable to work for a long period.
d) (1) Filed a tax return after the due date for tax returns for income for fiscal 2022, and the amount of deduction for medical expenses is equal to or exceeds the excess amount of the certification criteria. (Applicable period: January 1, 2022 to December 31, 2022) (2) In cases where total medical expenses for 12 consecutive months on or after January 1, 2023, exceed 100,000 yen, the excess amount is equal to or exceeds the excess amount of the certification criteria. (Eligibility period: From January 1, 2023) *Only medical expenses that are eligible for medical expense deductions will be considered. *The certification date may change depending on the reasons for the occurrence. *You can submit both (1) and (2), but only those with higher medical expenses will be considered.	If (1) applies: Taxable Amount (Non-Taxable) Certificate reflecting the results of your tax return *For medical expenses incurred during 2022, please complete the procedures for medical expense deductions by yourself and submit a Taxable Amount (Non-Taxable) Certificate reflecting the deductions for medical expenses. *If you have completed the procedures for medical expense deductions by the deadline for filing your tax return for the year 2022 and were registered as a resident of Kawasaki City as of January 1, 2023, you are not required to submit a Tax-Exemption Certificate. If (2) applies: Copies of documents showing the amounts of medical expenses for the period stated in (2) on the left (Notice of Medical Expenses, etc. sent by the National Federation of Health Insurance Societies, etc. or receipts for medical expenses, etc.) *If you have any supplemental benefits such as hospitalization benefits or a lump-sum maternity allowance, please submit those documents. * The required documents used for screening cannot be returned, so please be sure to submit copies if you plan to file tax returns for medical expense deductions, etc., in the future.
e) I received a municipal residents' tax exemption or reduction. * This excludes cases where losses are recorded on the sale or transfer of assets such as land, buildings, and stocks, as well as tax deductions for home acquisitions. * Proof of status of all household members is required	Any of the following documents * Tax exemption certificate * Exemption certificate * Certificate of taxable income (Something showing that tax has been reduced or waived)  * For the items e) through i), please submit documents for the most recent financial year (2023).
f) I received a personal business tax exemption. * Applicable only in the case of disaster damage.	Notification of receipt of a personal business tax exemption (Something showing the reason for the tax reduction or exemption.)
g) I received a property tax exemption. * Applicable only in cases when the land has been transformed or the house or depreciable assets have sustained damage.	Certificate of entries in the fixed asset taxation ledger (Statement of the reason for the tax reduction or exemption.)
h) I received a reduction or exemption of national pension premiums or reduction, exemption and deferment of payment of national health insurance premiums. * Proof of status of all household members is required. * Reductions in National Health Insurance premiums do not apply.	(1) For reduction or exemption of national pension premiums (One of the following documents) *Exemption period: July 2022 to June 2023 • Notification of approval of application for exemption from or deferral of payment of national pension insurance premiums • Notification of eligibility for exemption from paying national pension insurance premiums (2) Reduction, exemption and deferment of payment of national health insurance premiums (Any of the following documents) • Notification of approval of reduction or exemption from payment of national health insurance premiums
i) I received a loan from the Livelihood and Welfare Fund. (Loan period or date loan was approved: January 1, 2023 ~)	Notification of agreement to grant Livelihood and Welfare Fund Loan (including emergency small loans)
j) I am a day laborer registered with the Employment Security Office. * If there is more than one income earner in the household, proof must be provided for all income earners. I) Household members include high school students who are at least 18 years old as of April 2, 2022, such as 4th-year students at a part-time high school. * The application may be approved by adding the high school enrollment fee to the standard amount.	Employment Insurance Certificate
k) Household members include high school students who are at least 18 years old as of April 2, 2023, such as 4th-year students at a part-time high school. * The application may be approved by adding the high school enrollment fee to the standard amount.	Certificate of student status (Official seal of the principal of the high school in which the eligible high school student is enrolled) or Student ID card